

BC CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

JUNIOR BOARD MEMBER NOMINATION FORM

Junior Board Member

The British Columbia Cattlemen's Association will open nominations for the BC Junior Representative to sit on the BCCA Board of Directors.

Please complete the form below to put your name forth for a 1-year BCCA Junior Board Member position on the BCCA Board of Directors, and mail back to the BCCA Office by April 1, 2025.

Full Name: _____

Age, as of Jan. 1, 2025: (must be 19-30 years of age to be eligible) _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Eligibility:

- The Junior Representative must be between the ages of 19 - 30 years.
- The Junior Representative must be a member in good standing of the BCCA Association.
- The Junior Representative must reside in the zone they represent.
- To be eligible, the nomination form along with a letter of intent outlining your experience and interest in the position must be submitted to the BCCA office by mail by April 1.

Please ensure you have attached:

- This page completed, signed and dated.
- Your Letter of Intent outlining your suitability for this role.

Nominated By:	Nominator's Signature:
Date Nominated:	For office use Date received by BCCA:

POLICY: Process to Elect A Junior Representative on the Board of Directors

BC Cattlemen's Association (Adopted by the Board on December 14, 2023)

Role

- The BCCA Junior Representative is a non-voting member of the board, and is elected by the board of directors. a
- The Junior Representative will attend meetings of the Board of Directors and participate in discussions.

Eligibility

- The Junior Representative must be between the ages of 19 - 30 years
- The Junior Representative must be a member in good standing of the Association.
- The Junior Representative must reside in the zone they represent.
- To be eligible, a nomination form along with a letter outlining your experience and interest in the position must be submitted to the BCCA office by April 1st.

Term

- The Youth Representative is a one-year term, starting at the annual general meeting.
- BCCA will establish a Youth Representative starting in 2024 with Zone 1 Peace, and rotate annually through the zones as follows:
 - Zone 1 Peace youth representative (term 2024-2025)
 - Zone 2 Central youth representative (term 2025-2026)
 - Zone 3 Skeena youth representative (term 2026-2027)
 - Zone 4 Cariboo youth representative (term 2027-2028)
 - Zone 5 Thompson youth representative (term 2028-2029)
 - Zone 6 Okanagan youth representative (term 2029-2030)
 - Zone 7 Kootenay youth representative (term 2030-2031)
 - Zone 8 Island youth representative (term 2031-2032)
- If elected during a year that the AGM is presented in ZOOM format, the Junior Representative has the option to attend the following year in-person AGM at the expense of BCCA as an outgoing Junior Representative

Process

- The BCCA Board of Directors will annually review nominations and elect one youth representative.
- If the Youth Representative is unable to finish the term, the Board may at their discretion, appoint a new Junior Representative for the remainder of the term.
- If no nominations from the zone are received the position, the Board may invite a past Junior Representative to fill the position for the term.
- The BCCA Youth Representative is also eligible to serve as the provincial Canadian Youth Cattle Council (YCC) representative on behalf of the BC Cattlemen's Association.

Remuneration

- Honorarium paid for meetings
- Travel reimbursement
- Complimentary registration for the Annual General Meeting

Application

Application attached.